GREETINGS, GOOD WISHES, AND A HEARTY
WELCOME TO COLLEGE HEIGHTS

Our hearts are warm with appreciation for your coming. All of us, -members of the Athletic Committee, Board of Regents, Alumni Association, faculty, students, citizens of Bowling Green, -join in assurances of our pleasure in having you here. We value your presence, and we are extending you a most cordial welcome back to your Alma Mater. Even as your own family, your own dear mother welcomes you on your return home, so does Western (your academic mother) rejoice at your coming and welcome you to the Hilltop with outstretched arms. Welcome, thrice welcome!

We hope this, the Homecoming of 1933, will be the happiest you and we have yet experienced, that the entire occasion will be replete with the joyous thrills that come from renewing valued friendships, visiting again the scenes you especially hold dear, and noting the development of much that is of beauty as well as service on Western's campus.

As long as Western's hundreds and thousands of loyal sons and daughters, her grandsons and granddaughters (for she now numbers among her matriculants many fine boys and girls of the second and even third generation) annually come to renew their pledges of interest, loyalty, and devotion to the causes she champions, so long will her banner bearing the slogan of "Life, more life to the childhood of Kentucky," be lifted high and carried forward toward the achievement of the "high calling that is set before us". Leadership is needed; and we who are here have tried to give it, but without your continued and ardent love, loyalty, and sacrificial support little can be accomplished in our purpose to disseminate the gospel of education. And so let me repeat, thank you for coming. We are grateful for your presence, each and every friend of education. May you have no regret because of your coming but may the memory of this celebration ever be held dear to you. We hope that on each successive occasion, we shall again be made glad by your presence. As you return to your respective places of labor, your homes and firesides, take with you the love and good will of all College Heights and especially of one who is happy to have had the pleasure of again welcoming you back home and is privileged to sign himself,

Faithfully your friend,

H. H. CHERRY

COLLEGE HEIGHTS

College Heights on hill-top fair
With beauty all thine own,
Lovely jewel far more rare
Than graces any throne.

CHORUS:

College Heights, we hail thee!
We shall never fail thee!
Falter never, live forever
Hail! Hail! Hail!

College Heights with living soul
And purpose strong and true,
Service ever is thy goal
Thy spirit ever new.

College Heights, thy noble life
Shall e'er our pattern be,
Teaching us thru joy and strife
To love humanity.
